Agency: Nonsense | www.nonsenselondon.com

Location: Hoxton, London

Role: Junior Designer

Hours: Full Time

Experience: 1+ years

ABOUT US

We're an independent creative agency based in the heart of Hoxton. We pride ourselves on helping brands tell powerful stories that are rooted in their audience's interests and told in creative, innovative ways. We're a growing team of thinkers and doers, comprised of client service, planners and creatives who work closely alongside our in-house design, video and technical teams. We enjoy what we do and who we do it with, and are looking to grow our team with like-minded people.

THE ROLE

We're looking for a talented Junior Designer to join our growing team.

As a junior member of the design studio team you'll be working into the Senior Designer. Your work and development will be overseen by the Head of Design. You are a fully integrated allrounder who feels at home across categories, both digital and print. UX experience is a plus but not essential. You'll be working closely together with our creative teams to create exciting visual executions to bring our creative stories to life. Your work is up to a high standard and delivered within deadlines to ensure a consistent high quality level of really creative work on a range of great clients. You're curious by nature, have a strong will to learn, develop and grow your skill set and show interest in new programs and technologies.
